

REGULATIONS

VIBRA | RioLGBTQIA+ 2026

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: MAY 1, 2026
Presentation period during the festival: July 1–8, 2026

VIBRA, the performing arts program of RioLGBTQIA+ 2026, opens a call for LGBTQIA+ artists and collectives interested in presenting proposals for performances, shows, and experimental works.

1. Registration

Participation is free of charge. No application fee is required.

2. Selection and participation

Submitted proposals will be evaluated by the festival's curatorial team, which will select the works to be included in the program.

3. Financial conditions

No fees will be paid to selected artists. Participation in VIBRA is intended as a platform for visibility, dissemination, and artistic exchange.

4. Presentations

Performances will take place at official festival venues, with free admission for the public.

5. Awards

Audience members will be responsible for voting on the presentations. The most voted performances will receive the Festival Trophy and may be awarded prizes offered by supporters and partners.

6. General provisions

By submitting an application, the artist agrees to the terms of these regulations and authorizes the use of images and recordings of the presentations for festival promotion purposes.
